FACTS

- 11. On June 18, 2017, Morgan Ten Eyck was a passenger in a vehicle driven by Tahlen Bourassa.
- 12. Also accompanying Mr. Bourassa was a gentleman named Micah Roemen.
- 13. In the early morning hours of June 18, 2017, the Flandreau Tribal Police Officers, along with the Moody County Deputy Sheriffs, the South Dakota Highway Patrol, and the City of Flandreau Police Department stopped a vehicle driven by Tahlen Bourassa.
- 14. Robert Neuenfeldt, Chief of Police for Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe, threatened to take Bourassa to jail. Bourassa then fled.
- 15. Neuenfeldt and Logan Baldini, an uncertified deputy for Moody County Sheriff's Office, both got in Neuenfeldt's tribal police cruiser and initiated pursuit.
- 16. Sargent Kurtz, South Dakota Highway Patrol, was also initially involved in the pursuit.

- 17. It is believed that Tahlen Bourassa, Morgan Ten Eyck, and Micah Roemen had not committed any crimes to justify the pursuit.
- 18. At the time the Bourassa vehicle was stopped, Neuenfeldt, and the other officers at the scene, knew the identity of the driver, Tahlen Bourassa.
- 19. Neuenfeldt and the other officers at the scene, knew that Tahlen Bourassa was actively being monitored by the South Dakota Parole Board through a GPS ankle bracelet.
- 20. Notwithstanding that the officers knew specifically who was driving the vehicle, knew that there had been no violations of the law, and knew that two innocent passengers were in the vehicle, a high-speed pursuit took place for over thirty minutes reaching speeds in excess of 100 miles per hour on gravel roads.
- 21. On two occasions, spike strips were laid out without proper authorization.
- 22. Just prior to the accident, spike strips were laid out and a barricade of police cars forced Tahlen Bourassa to take a dead-end gravel road.
  - 23. Defendants knew the dead-end road would result in an accident.
- 24. Prior to the catastrophic accident, which caused Claimant's lifethreatening injuries, the South Dakota Highway Patrol aborted the pursuit.
- 25. It is believed that Neuenfeldt disregarded orders to terminate the pursuit.

- 26. Once the Highway Patrol terminated the pursuit, Neuenfeldt and Baldini continued the pursuit causing Bourassa's vehicle to lose control and roll several times throwing all three occupants from the vehicle.
- 27. All occupants suffered incapacitating injuries and were life flighted from the scene.
- 28. Morgan Ten Eyck was in a coma for weeks, and sustained a serious traumatic brain injury, a broken femur, and a severe injury to her liver.
- 29. As a result of the accident, Morgan Ten Eyck is completely incapacitated.
- 30. As a result of the accident, Plaintiffs have sustained thousands of dollars in medical bills for their daughter's care.

COUNT I: NEGLIGENCE

- 31. Defendants owed a duty of care to Morgan Ten Eyck as an innocent bystander and passenger of the fleeing vehicle, and breached this duty by failing to follow mandatory pursuit policies, causing severe and permanent damages to Morgan Ten Eyck.
- 32. Defendants' numerous violations of the pursuit policies constitute reckless disregard for the safety of others.
- 33. Defendants failed to follow the mandatory pursuit policy in the following respects:

- a. It is determined a vehicle pursuit is a use of force. This use of force is confined to appropriate tribal jurisdiction. No pursuit can be initiated when it is outside their area of jurisdiction. In addition, the officer failed to reasonably believe that the suspect, if allowed to flee, presents potential danger to human life or may cause serious injury;
- b. In "all areas of the jurisdiction," officers are expected to end their involvement of pursuit whenever the risk of their own safety or safety of others outweigh the danger to the community if the suspect is not apprehended;
- c. It is mandatory that the officer in the primary unit notify the dispatch of five items. No such notification occurred;
- d. A secondary unit will be engaged to move into position and assume the communication responsibility;
- e. The secondary unit will coordinate the activities of other assessing units;
- f. The supervisor is ultimately responsible for terminating the pursuit or allowing it to continue;
- g. The supervisor will continually weigh the risk based on information being received from dispatch and the pursuing unit;
- h. The supervisor will immediately terminate the pursuit when the pursuit is not in compliance with the requirements of this section;

- Supervisors shall evaluate their actions based on the potential benefits of their actions outweigh the risks that are involved;
- j. Pursuits are limited to two police vehicles. Additional units may participate if directed by the supervisor or senior officer on duty;
- k. If the pursuit extends off roadway, assessment of the risk must be determined to decide whether to continue the pursuit;
- 1. Officers in pursuit must have received approved IPA training in the use of BIA-OJS tire deflation devices;
- m. Because use of tire deflating devices is considered a roadblock, only the chief of police or a supervisor can authorize their use.
   The suspect must be a dangerous fleeing felon;
- n. Safety circumstances must be an important factor;
- o. Determination of the most suitable safest location must be made;
- p. Tire deflation device must never be used if you believe the location is unsafe;
- q. Tire deflation devices should never be deployed with pedestrians in the immediate vicinity;
- r. Only deploy a tire deflation device after you have identified a safe location to observe the pursuit;
- s. A pursuit may only be extended beyond the reservation line if the primary control of pursuit is relinquished as soon as practical to police personnel of entered jurisdiction (here the pursuit was never on tribal land);

- t. Officers must follow LE Handbook Section 2-24-02, authorization for pursuit when joining a pursuit initiated by another jurisdiction;
- u. OJS officers will discontinue pursuits initiated by another jurisdiction when pursuit continues outside their jurisdiction unless officer's safety becomes a consideration;
- v. High speed pursuits shall be limited to substantial crimes that require immediate action;
- w. High speed pursuits should not occur when the identity of the driver is known; and
- x. High speed pursuits should be ended whenever the risks to the safety of others outweigh the danger to the community if the suspect is not apprehended.
- 34. Defendants violated every requirement as set forth in paragraph 33 above.
- 35. Defendants' actions also violated the policies regarding the use of road blocks and spike strips.
- 36. The use of road blocks, and or spike strips, may only be used in the case of suspected fleeing felons whose escape poses a danger to life.
- 37. Tahlen Bourassa was not a fleeing felon whose escape posed a danger to life.
- 38. Defendants and the Bureau of Indian Affairs, an agency of the United States of America, acting by and through their servants and employees, all acting within the course and scope of their agency and employment with Defendant, were negligent and reckless through numerous violations of their own pursuit policies.

- 39. If Defendant, United States, were a person, it would be liable in accordance with the laws of South Dakota and the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe.
- 40. As a direct legal result of Defendants' negligent, reckless, and willful and wanton disregard for the safety of Plaintiff, Morgan Ten Eyck sustained serious injuries and damages, which require substantial medical care and have resulted in permanent disability.
